

2013 Orange Blossom Festival
Honored Couple
Gary and Meredith Morris

When it comes to volunteering Gary & Meredith have few peers. They are longtime Lindsay residents.

They have 2 grown children Craig Morris and wife Stacey of Visalia and Stephanie Morris Curry and her husband Scott Curry of Alamo. They are the proud Grandparents of 4 handsome grandsons, Spencer, Barrett, Joey and Pete.

They have dedicated many hours making it possible for the children of this community to participate in successful sports and educational programs such as the Lindsay 4-H Club, Lindsay Skimmers, Lindsay Little League Coach and the Lindsay -Ono Sister City Program.

The Morris have enjoyed sharing their time and talent with the community of Lindsay they are very honored and look forward to celebrating Lindsay's 81st Orange Blossom Festival. They will be honored along with the Queen and her Attendants on Saturday April 13th at the Queens Coronation to be held at Lindsay City Hall beginning at 5:00 PM
